

November 2010

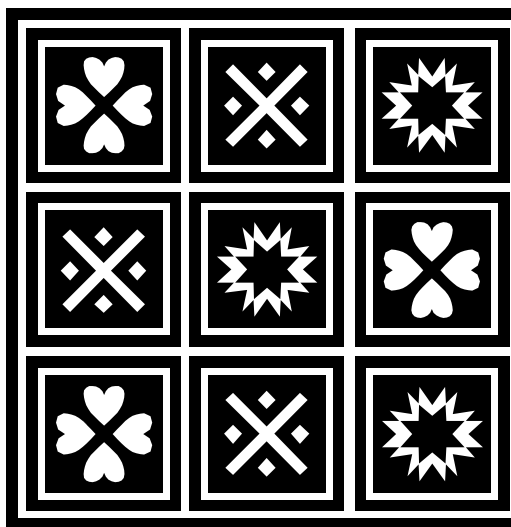

Message from the President

Hi everyone,

Well it seems like fall is here to stay and winter is not far behind. We had our first "winter warning" last night when I looked out the window and the grass had turned white. Good thing it didn't last because I still have things to do outside. I hope everyone enjoyed our guest speaker at our last meeting. I thought it was very interesting and I have heard some good feedback from a few of you. I have also talked with Sandra and she had a great time, and she especially enjoyed the "HOTEL" we put her in. We will be having a fun program in November. A list of things to bring will be in the newsletter.

Well I guess that's all for now.

See you November 4th, Andrea Blaisdell

A Sunshine card was sent to Connie Page. We will check with Rita to see if a donation was made in Connie's name.

The Raffle quilt was taken to Hyde Park Home Days and made $127.00.

The Guild has agreed to invite Ken Harvey to the Christmas pot luck where he will be given a quilt.

The next meeting we will be electing a vice-president.

We will be making Christmas ornaments at the November meeting. A list of supplies needed will be in the October newsletter.

FOLLOW UP WORK DAY ON FRI., OCT. 29TH FOR SUNSHINE QUILTS

There will be another work day...Friday, Oct. 29th....to finish the batch of quilts started on the Oct. 15th workday. We had 15 members attend that meeting, and we accomplished a lot, but ran out of day before all the quilts were done. On the 29th we will primarily have quilt tying to do, so bring your favorite needle and your lunch if you can stay for the day. We have the Community Center reserved from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. We also have a few large quilts ready for tying, so if we finish the small ones quickly we will have an opportunity to move some big quilts along on the road to completion.

Hope to see you at the work day of Oct. 29th.

NOVEMBER – OLD FASHIONED CHRISTMAS TREE PREPARATIONS

Come help string popcorn & cranberries for our old fashioned Christmas Tree at the Helen Day Art Center. Bring your thimbles!

Supplies to bring: Needles & thimbles to string popcorn & cranberries onto filaments, double sided scotch tape for paper chains, white glue for clothespin people, white quilting thread, and scissors. Also bring any old-fashioned, hand-made ornaments for the tree, maybe the ones you made for last year's tree?

DECEMBER – ANNUAL POTLUCK

Bring a dish to share for our annual potluck at 6:30 PM. We will be inviting Ken & Martha Harvey and presenting a quilt to Ken.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH SUNSHINE QUILT SQUARES

As we now have enough Bow Tie blocks to work with for a quilt, if you are motivated to do a Block of the Month, please pick a star design of any kind and make a 10 ½ unfinished block of your choice of print and an off-white background. It will be interesting to see how many kinds of star blocks we will collect!
