

November 2019

Message from the President

Hello everyone,

Thank you so much to Cindy and Sharon for the last meeting. It was great to see all the fun little projects you can make for gifts or yourself. Grey job ladies!

I am writing this at a quilt retreat with Lisa and Jane and I think many of you are at Jay Peak so I can't wait for the next meeting to see all the fun things everyone made.

Sharon Perry has arranged for Jessica from SewMany Creations to present to the guild in May. Details to follow.

Have fun sewing!

PROGRAM INFO

A big thank you to Sharon for all her work for last month's program. We all should have no excuse for not having something to make for people on our gift lists. Sharon not only had a handout for us to take notes on, she has put them all, with videos, on our web page www.commonthreadsvt.org

The November program will be an introduction to collage quilting, which veers off from raw edge applique. It will be presented by Jan and Martha. They will go through the process and show items they and others have made. There will be a handout that will include supplies needed and web sites to watch.

NEW BUSINESS

Anyone have a good idea for a challenge quilt?
