~~~~~

This is a chance for you to turn 13 PhDs (Projects Half Done) into quilts by December 2013! It's time to clean out your PhD closet! Make a list of those unfinished projects (at least 13) that are hanging over your head. Clear your conscience of those purchases you just had to have and haven't gotten around to yet because you have PhDs hanging around making you feel guilty. Join us for the Finish Your PhD in 2013 Challenge and turn your PhDs into finished quilts.

- Decide on 13 PhDs that you want to turn into finished quilts and fill out the form below.
- "Finishing" the quilt means quilted and bound.
- There is a fun fee to participate; donate 2 fat quarters to enter.
- One completed project is due for each month, January through December. One additional project is due any time in 2013.
- Show each completed project at Show and Tell so it can be checked off your list. During Show and Tell, a picture will be taken of the quilt/quilter.
- Fill out a ticket for each completed project and put it in the PhD basket. A drawing will be held each meeting for a chance to win a prize.
- At the completion of the Finish Your PhD in 2013 Challenge, everyone who has finished all 13 quilts on time will have a ticket entered into a drawing for a fabulous Grand Prize!!! All prizes will be determined based on number of participants.
