

August 2016

Message from the President

Those of you who were not at the potluck dinner meeting earlier this month may not know that Rhonda, our secretary, has departed and is on her way to teach second grade in Arizona. Congratulations to her, but boo-hiss to us as the guild is now without a very capable secretary. SO - if there is a member out there who would like to volunteer to be our new secretary for one year, please let me know and be ready to begin at our next meeting August 4. If no one comes forward, we will have to resort to the Nominating Committee to fill that position.

On that same note, when Rhonda resigned she also gave me a 32 pound (I weighed it!) box of guild scrapbooking stuff and said that she had not done much with it. I do not propose to pass this along to the next secretary as I do not believe that it (scrapbooking) is in their realm of duty. What I personally would propose to do with it probably isn't printable here. Again, SO - if there is someone in the guild who enjoys scrapbooking and would like to take a look at it, let me know and I will carry it to your car at the next meeting or deliver it to your home. In the absence of someone volunteering, I will put it in our shed for one year. If no one has shown any interest by August 2017, I, while I am still president, will then do to it what I would like to do with it now.

On a less strident note, there were many cool and delicious salads and desserts that we enjoyed on a hot night at the potluck dinner. Just goes to show that there are as many good cooks as there are good quilters in our guild.

Sally

Old Business

Quilt Show: there still needs to be a chairperson.

Rhonda Griswold has had to resign as secretary due to the fact that she (I) am moving to Arizona to teach. So a new volunteer needs to step up and become the secretary for the guild.

Show and Tell

Rhonda was given a check for $100 to help with the move. Thank you to all of you. It has been a privilege and fun to be the secretary for the guild. I will keep in touch.
