Message from the President

I am pushing Julie to the limit this month with my late first president's message. I am used to having my part ready by the monthly quilt meeting two weeks later. Sigh -

And another sigh when I write that I have seen orange/red maple leaves down on my driveway, Canada geese resting in a field four consecutive days this week, and trees beginning to turn on the ridge above where I live. Another winter is on the way. However, that does make for good quilting weather.

I will do my best to be a good president this year, but I do have some very big shoes from our past presidents to fill. May I do as well as they have done.

Sally

Peggy will bring a first draft in b/w of the quilt cards so any corrections can be made.

The raffle quilt will be on display at the Hyde Park Home Days. Robin Wright will be there to set up and take down and would like some help throughout the day- September 19 12-4p,

Please remember to sell tickets and if you have an opportunity to display the quilt and sell tickets, let Marion know and she will make the arrangements. Marion sold $120 in tickets when she had company and they saw the quilt on display. So far this year there is only $515 in sales. Last show we sold $3000 worth. Marion showed us the second and third place raffle pieces.

Recurring Business

Hints for the month- Ellie shared the way she works with bindings using a roll of paper towel and pinning the binding and rolling up the binding. She holds the roll in her lap and as it is sewn she unrolls the binding.

Peggy shared that she has realized that if she hang the squares up in a wall, she can see if the blocks work well or need to be rearranged.

Library- there are 393 books and she just purchased two new ones Quilts for My Garden and More Loose Change. We will be paring down the number of books- by selling some at the Quilt Show and some will be offered for sale at the next meetings. If you have borrowed Playful Patchwork and a book on Woolens Sharon would like to know as they are out but no names are known. Contact Sharon please.

Block of the Month-This was Sally's last block of the month. If anyone has any ideas on ways to continue with the blocks or any other kind of program similar please share later., A discussion ensued - sharing blocks to make a quilt, continuing to make single blocks with someone else coordinating- please bring ideas in later meetings. There were 15 blocks and Sally won them.

Cookbooks- Mary brought in a request for a cookbook that was mailed to her. Rhonda will deal with getting a cookbook from Hilda and mailing the book.

Old Business

Antiques and Uniques- $173 in raffle ticket sales

New Business

There was a Board meeting to introduce the new President- Sally and Vice President Donna to procedures for meetings. We toured the shed and discussed adding a new lock on the shed so if it is difficult to close it can still be secured. Andrea is looking into a cabinet which can be locked and stored in the Clubhouse to store the library books, items from the closet- badges, baskets, and supplies for the meetings. She is looking for one to roll out. Ideas came from the members to look into the state surplus in Burlington on Pine Street, which is open to the public. Ginny offered a similar unit without shelves. Marion made the motion and Sally seconded, the motion passed.

Update on the screen- we have permission to hang it on a 2X4 off the side wall of the Clubhouse.

Andrea shared a project we could participate in if we like- Developmental Hearts- a project to make hearts (for moms and preemie babies) to donate and send to the program. More information will be on our website and you can see the program at the preemieproject.com.

Sew and Tell

The gavel was passed to Sally and the meeting ended at 7:20.

The program was the Tea Cup Auction.

MORE BOOKS ADDED THIS SUMMER

The guild's library now totals 395 books. The following books were recently added to the guild's varied and large collection of books: More Take 5 Quilts and Take 5 Quilts: Quilts from Just 5 Fabrics, both by Kathy Brown; and More Loose Change: 14 Quilts from Nickels, Dimes, and Fat Quarters by Claudia Plett and Le Ann Weaver.

As discussed at previous guild meetings, Annie Morgan and Sharon Perry will be reviewing the guild's vast library collection before the quilt show. They will be looking to remove older books from the library. These books will be offered for sale first to guild members at the September and October meetings; whatever books remain will be sold in the boutique at the quilt show. Any money raised will be used to offset part of the cost of purchasing a cabinet for indoor storage at Sterling View. If the cabinet is large and sturdy enough, the guild library will be stored in the cabinet for easy access by guild members at the monthly meetings.

In the meantime, if you'd like to "check out" any library books, please contact Sharon at 326-3135 or email vtquilter@gmail.com to let her know which book(s) you'd like. She'll bring them to the next guild meeting or make arrangements to get them to you.

For those with internet access, you can peruse the library list in the comfort of your own home. The list for the CTQG library is at <http://www.commonthreadsvt.org/ctqglibrary.html>. If you have any suggestions for additions to the library, please let Sharon Perry know.

QUILT SHOW

The show is just under two months away. Thanks to all the committee people for being so prepared. I know we are apt to get anxious as the date approaches, but the underlying work has been done and I'm confident with the help of all the guild members the show will be a success.

The ways you can help are:

Put up posters! And spread the word. A large number of attendees will make the show a success

Volunteer! We need you all to help out somewhere during the show. You can man the admission table, raffle table, tea cup auction table, or white glove. There will be a sign up sheet at the next meeting. Of course, we can use you all at set up and take down times.

Donate! The tea cup auction needs more items. Popular items are placemats, bags, wall hangings, fabric, notions, and baskets of various kinds. Please get your items to Martha or Jan. We could use a few more items for door prizes too. Get those items to Cindy.

Sell Raffle Tickets! The sale of raffle tickets is the biggest money maker in the show.

If you are putting things for sale on the boutique table, please let Annie know as she will need to assign you a number.

Have you thought of a demonstration you can do? If so, let Cindy know.

Be getting your registered quilts ready. They need a 6" sleeve sewn on if they are not a miniature or wool piece.
