DECEMBER 2023

The President's Block

Hello Members,

In the last newsletter I told you I would be getting all my Christmas decorations out, as of now I'm almost done I just have three full size trees to decorate and I will be done just in time for Thanksgiving. Hopefully I will now find time to do some sewing.

Unfortunately the weather did not cooperate for our November meeting but we had 16 adventuresome members attend the meeting. Denise Mayo surprised us with a program showing the Christmas Tree she made and passed out copies of the pattern. I will make copies for the next meeting for anyone that didn't attend.

Remember we will be playing a game using 2½ inch wide, width of fabric (jelly roll) strips. You will need 12 strips of any fabric you wish. I played this game recently with three of my friends and we had a great time. I hope you will enjoy.

I wish everyone the happiest of holidays.

Your President,

Cheryl Leach

DECEMBER NIGHTS by Audur Einarsdottir

December nights are different than the rest.

In December I lie awake
and listen to Christmas songs.

In December I lie awake
finding presents for my loved ones.

In December I lie awake
thinking about what I'll cook over the holidays.

Why can't every month be December?

A QUILTER'S NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS

'Twas the night before Christmas,
And the quilts were not made.
The threads were all tangled, the cookies delayed.
The stocking weren't hung, the pantry was bare.
The poor weary Quilter was tearing her hair.
Stacks of fat quarters, tipped over in streams.
Visions of Log Cabins had turned into dreams.

When what to her wondering eyes should appear,
But a bus full of quilters with all of their gear.
They went straight to work with just a few mutters,
Sorting and stitching and brandishing cutters.

The patterns emerged from all of the clutter,
Like magic the fabrics arranged in a flutter.
Log Cabins, Lone Stars, Flying Geese & Bear Tracks
Each quilt was a beauty-even the backs.

Her house how it twinkled, her quilts how they glowed.
The cookies were baking, the stockings were sewed.
Their work was all done, so they folded their frames,
And packed up their needles, without giving their names.
They boarded the bus, and checked the next address.
More quilts to be made, another quilter in distress.

She heard one voice echo, as they drove out of sight,
Happy quilting to all and to all a good night!

Merry Christmoose!!!

DECEMBER ANAGRAMS

This newsletter editor is always looking for new articles and features to share with guild members. This month, we're introducing a regular feature called "Quilting Anagrams." Just as a reminder, an anagram is a word, phrase, or name formed by rearranging the letters of another, such as cinema formed from iceman. All of the anagrams presented this month will have something to do with December. Answers can be found at the end of this page.
